TEST WINNERS

2001 ← → 2017

For more than 15 years we have been cooperating with leading brands of the motorcycle industry – undoubtedly the most extreme field of application when it comes to efficient safety protection. And we still act upon our maxim back then: we wanted and still want to develop protectors offering optimal safety and comfort.

Ever since we have started our development which should change a market -dominated by hard-shell protectors - we have been setting new standards and trends regarding safety, comfort and fit. Our approach to safety and protection was new and completely different, we focused on the protective qualities of special foam materials.

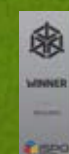

No other brand has won as many comparative tests as Komperdell. For years, our Cross-protectors have been the benchmark concerning safety – the many awards we have won in the motorbike, wintersports and equestrian industry prove that our approach has been the right one and we consequently follow this path with our protector-line 2017/18.

FIT

It is most important that the protector stays in the original position to protect the critical areas when dynamic falls or spills happen.

BREATHABLE

COMFORT

The best protection is inefficient if it is not used. We, therefore, pay special attention to a perfect wearing comfort as well as to the quality of materials we choose.
